PRESS RELEASE

Arrests made in Stevenson Co Ply Fire

Extensive investigation, and with a concerned citizen's involvement through a tip line, Detectives were able to develop suspects resulting in arrest of 3 individuals for their involvement in the setting of the Stevenson Co Ply industrial complex fire, which occurred on September 21st, 2007. Agencies assisting the Skamania County Sheriff's Office Detectives in their investigation included agents from ATF, Cowlitz County Sheriff's Office, and Kalama Police Department.

Charges were requested through the Skamania County Prosecutor's office of Arson in the First Degree and Burglary in the Second Degree on Jordan Reeves, 21 of Vancouver, WA, his cousin Brad Reeves, 19 of Kalama, WA and a 16 year old male juvenile from Kalama, WA. Jordan and Brad Reeves are currently being held at the Skamania County Sheriff's Office Jail and the juvenile is being held in the juvenile facility at NORCOR.

We would like to thank all of those involved in providing information in this investigation which led to the arrest of these 3 individuals.
